WHAT IS THE CLIMATE IN ITALY?

During the summer months, the weather in Italy is warm, with highs during the day at 90°F (32.2°C), and around 60°F (15.5°C), at night. You can expect sunshine and very little rainfall.

Italy, like several other European countries, has federally mandated regulations designed to conserve electricity consumption. The regulations impose seasonal restrictions on heating and cooling systems. This means that all lodgings, from 5-star deluxe hotels to modest farmhouses, are subject to strict energy restrictions. These businesses may only switch their air systems from hot to cold (or from cold to hot) when the government mandate allows them. If you are sensitive to cold weather, we advise that you bring sweaters in spring and fall in case there is a short cold spell and the property management can't turn the heating on. Likewise, air conditioning is typically not available in April or October, although there can be hot spells in those months. These circumstances are normally not a significant challenge for our Guests; however, we wanted you to be aware of the restrictions and the potential impact to your comfort.

HOW STRENUOUS IS THE VACATION?

In order to get as much as possible out of your Italy vacation, a lot of walking is required to see all of the sites. In Rome and Venice, the cobblestone streets and bridges can be challenging, especially in the summer. The full range of activities offered requires stamina in order to get the most of your vacation. You can call one of our Reservation Agents to discuss whether this trip is right for you.

IS THERE AN AGE LIMIT FOR THIS TRIP?

Guests must be 18 years old at the time of travel in order to book this vacation.

WHAT TYPES OF MEALS ARE SERVED ON THIS TRIP?

Typically, breakfast is served buffet style and offers a variety of dishes. Dinners and lunches usually include fish or meat and pasta or rice entrees, with vegetables, salad, fruit and dessert. Some included meals on this trip are served buffet style while others offer a limited-choice menu. Given the nature of group travel, we regret that à la carte menu choices may not always be available. Menu items are subject to change due to the availability and seasonality of foods. If you have any questions or concerns about dining at any time during your vacation, your Adventure Guides will be happy to assist you.

IS ALCOHOL INCLUDED WITH MEALS?

Alcoholic beverages are typically not included with your scheduled meals. However, you may purchase them at your own expense.
